BANQUET GUESTS OF HONOR

His Excellency, Dr. Faris el-Khoury,
Chairman of the Security Council of the United Nations Conference and President of the Syrian Parliament

Dr. Charles Malik, Minister from Lebanon (Guest Speaker)

Edward Ghorra, Lebanon Consul General

DR. FARIS el-KHOURI

Faris el-Khoury was born in Kfeir in 1879, and was educated at the University of Beirut, receiving his B.A. degree in 1897. After teaching for two years at the same University, he took up law practice in Damascus. He was appointed professor of law at the Syrian University of Damascus in 1919.

Mr. el-Khoury's diplomatic career began in 1914, when he served for four years as Deputy of Damascus to the Ottoman Parliament in Constantinople. He was Counsellor of State in 1918, Minister of Finance in 1920, and Deputy of Damascus to the Syrian Federal Council in 1922.

Mr. el-Khoury was appointed Minister of Public Instruction in 1926. From 1936 to 1939, and again from 1943 to 1944, he was Deputy of Damascus and President of Parliament. He served as Chairman of the Syrian Delegation to the Parliamentary Congress held in Cairo in 1938, as well as to the Arab League Congress, held in that city in 1945. He was Chairman of the Syrian Delegation to the United Nations Conference on International Organization in San Francisco in 1945 and subsequently has been his country's chief delegate to the General Assembly and the Security Council. From 1944 to 1945 Mr. el-Khoury was Prime Minister of Syria, after which he was again elected President of Parliament.

In addition to other occupations, he served as President of the Bar from 1921 to 1926, and has been Vice President of the Syrian National Bloc since 1928. From 1930 to 1944 he became President of the Board of Directors of the National Cement Society, a post which he still holds. Mr. el-Khoury is also a director of the Spinning and Weaving Society, as well as a member of the Association of Graduates of High Scientific Associations, and of the Arab Academy. He is also the holder of the degree of Doctor of Foreign Service from the University of Southern California, which was conferred upon him after the San Francisco Conference.
