

LOST YOU

Handwritten musical score for "The Rose Tree". The score is written on ten staves, with the top staff labeled "vocal" and the subsequent staves representing piano accompaniment. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings. There are also handwritten annotations and section markers.

Annotations and Markings:

- vocal: Written above the first staff.
- 8va higher: Written above the piano part, indicating an octave transposition.
- 8.: A section marker or rehearsal point, appearing multiple times.
- D.S.: Da Capo, indicating a repeat of the section.
- AL: A marking, possibly for a specific performance instruction.
- Section Markers: Circled letters A, B, and C are used to denote different sections of the music.

The score is a handwritten manuscript, likely a composer's draft or a working score, showing the musical structure and performance instructions for the piece.
