Dear Mr. Schiffman,

Would you please see that Sarah Vaughan is spelled right. Everyone seems too want to spell it different and kindly remark about her - just coming from the Theresa Hotel & the Esquire Award. I will try to send some new pictures before she opens. Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely
George Treadwell

Dear Mr. Schiffman.

I am sending you a clipping from Pittsburg Courier on Ruth Brown. You might use it for publicity.

I understand Belle Holiday is on the same bill with Ruth. Now don't show Ruth under giving her a chance and a good spot and a chance to do her numbers. You know these new fad life show business and I know it.

See you next week

Blanche Calloway.

Mr. Skiffman

Sorry to leave such a fine theatre and your employ, but will make up for everything you have done for me. Expect to be back here again, carry on your fine trait and keep having the best. You know your show business it has been a pleasure
a twenty-five year man

Dear Mr. Schiffman:

Four years ago, the United Nations was founded as the basis for a stable and enduring peace. Today mankind is threatened with the catastrophe of atomic war.

The diplomats sign the Atlantic Pact in the name of "peace" and in the guise of "strengthening" the United Nations. But the Wall Street Journal far more realistically and accurately describes the pact as "the triumph of jungle law over international cooperation."

We who send you this letter are not willing to believe that brute force is a substitute for human reason. We are not willing to replace the One World of the United Nations with the two worlds of the Atlantic Pact. We are not willing to stake America's security solely upon military power.

We know that you - and men and women of influence like you throughout the nation - are deeply concerned lest our government take a false step that may cost us our freedom and plunge our country into a catastrophe which it is still possible to avoid. We believe you share with us the desire to do everything possible to safeguard the American people from the terrible indictment that, through our government's action, we might become responsible for the destruction of civilized man. We are certain you would welcome an opportunity to meet with others like yourself to discuss the war danger, to make your opposition to the Pact manifest and to decide upon constructive alternative proposals for peace. With Americans everywhere sensing the dangers of our current foreign policy, it is surely our obligation to make articulate this opinion.

We therefore invite you to join with us the week-end of May 20th and 21st - in Washington, D.C., in a non-delegated meeting of leaders of civic, church, labor and community organizations. No responsibility seems as urgent as the need for all of us to find common ground upon which to make our stand for real and lasting peace.

The enclosed card is for your convenience. We look forward to seeing you in Washington on May 13th.

Sincerely yours,

Emily Greene Balch

Dear Mr. Shiffman,

Sunday night, October 23rd is the night set aside by my old friends in the theatrical world and my new-found friends in the religious field as My Benefit Night. All the proceeds from this program will be used solely for the express purpose of aiding me in establishing a church in the heart of Harlem, namely, "Everybody's Church."

I realize that in all probability your managerial duties there at The Apollo Theatre will keep you rather busy but if you find a spare moment or two Sunday night, why not drop in at The Golden Gate. In the event that you find you cannot attend, tune in on the hour long broadcast directly from the Gate from 10:00 to eleven p.m. via Station WJW.

Until Sunday night, I shall anticipate the pleasure of your presence and shall look forward to seeing you. I shall remain

Yours,

Rev. Wm. "Bill" Bailey
