FRIDAY, MAY 11

We arrived the sick were perfectly in the house. We were all better the day before we left. Baker the gardener drove us down to the depot and there were a few hair-raising turns. The most of things left was still snowing the town. We left on the chief at 12:30 and sat around and did crossword puzzles. Dad decided to play the Plaisir ^{recreated} ^{for the} Mom and ~~the~~ observation car, there was no thing to do so I decided to see how many Smiths there were in Chicago. I picked up the telephone book and look it up. There were 13 pages of Smith 11 pages of Jones 17 pages of Johnson 5 pages of Brown. We saw nice scenery because there

SATURDAY, MAY 14

SUNDAY, MAY 15

MONDAY, MAY 16

~~was nothing to see~~
~~so I went out the city at~~ ~~10:00 and in the morning~~
~~the grass and did~~
~~the rest of the day~~ ~~settled and~~ ~~no scenery~~

TUESDAY, MAY 17

I went to look for dad
in the ^{home} ~~apartment~~ car.
It seemed that the car was changed in course I went straight into the bathroom
mom read ^{at the} lay
it in and after lay wanted to play the

and our car was swished over to this train.
cooling system still broke day played clarinet
was only air in the room.
It seemed that we were in a pressure cooker that night.

FRIDAY, MAY 20

20th.

We got to New York and we immediately
had breakfast. ^{about 8:30} salt water still going (on us) we were refreshed by a shower cold. A called for us and we went on a sight seeing tour. We had lunch at the Plaza, the windiest

in New York. We cont.
our journey up Fifth avenue and over a small bridge to the Bronx. We dropped in to Yankee Stadium
and to perfect box
seat tickets were waiting for us there. Larry Doby piled a ball about and nearly more than 430

Final score ~~Cleveland 3, Yankees 2~~

TUESDAY, MAY 24

Our lim still waiting for us the old driver who had watched part of the game over television took us up Riverside Dr overlooking the east river and then home. Dad was unable to go with mom and I on the tour
and to the game because there was a ~~press conference~~ and a cocktail party before game

WEDNESDAY, MAY 25

We took another shower
and put on new clothes
At last because we had worn the same
clothes all through the train trip and in the pressure cooker. My shirt which I had worn
to the ball game and the tour had a delicate aroma of a combination of

THURSDAY, MAY 26

but when it happened, Ma came home with the mumps but she was all right that night with Dad and I to where we were going.

We went to Lindy's for dinner. Boy that was good.
I had pot roast, potato pan cakes some sort of ~~vegetable~~ I think it was string beans, some sort of strawberry goo
for dessert and just but not, ~~not~~ much least

FRIDAY, MAY 27

(with that dinner) milk, after that we went to the majestic theater
to see South Pacific.
The music was good, the performance was good.

The singing was good. The show was good at that also.

We finally had a good night
The next day we ^{21st} left on the Queen ^{of sleep}

SATURDAY, MAY 28

Mary for Europe - she left at 1:00. Mom immediately got into bed and we were off. She kept her face covered
so no body would see that she had the mumps. Nothing else happened except it was raining.

We met ~~at~~ ^{22nd} on the trip by the name of the Black Eagle.

SUNDAY, MAY 29

He was a character. He could do everything. He taught us about the colognes in your stomach if you don't sit up straight at the table they will lend. The worch-tershire sauce. He found out that there were ping pong tables on the deck so we played a lot of ping pong. I was a lousy player. ~~Nothing happened~~ except that ~~the~~ we played ping pong and the coned and the colognes. Still cloudy but sea was more calm.

24th

Mom began to get better and we were still playing ping pong. Before this dad had his harp down in the baggage room because it was too big to get them into the room. so he played his harp a lot. The sun finally came out but behind clouds. you couldn't play many outdoor games. sea was pretty calm.

TUESDAY, MAY 31

25th.

Mom felt better and she got out of bed and went upon the sun deck for a while. She fell asleep in a chair while we had lunch.

We arrived in Cherbourg France and the coned had to leave us. 3:00

Then we went on to Southampton in England. At 11:00

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1

We didn't get off because we didn't want to risk by automobile to London. Dad and I had an interview with some press men at 12:00. We then got to bed.

THURSDAY, JUNE 24

We arose at 7:30 and had breakfast with a young man by the name of Johnny Clarkson. He was an agency - He was sort of the private detective character with a list of an engaged actress whom we had met.

FRIDAY, JUNE 3

the night before. We took a train to London, had some tea and went right to sleep. We woke up at 3:00 and Mary took me to Westminster Abbey. We didn't stay long because it was late. After that we had dinner and we went to bed.

17th.

SATURDAY, JUNE 4

We went to Madame Tussaud's Wax Museum. Wasn't too good. Then we went home. Dad had to find talent for his show and he was rehearsing all day. That night we had dinner and Dad went out and mom heard the radio and watched the stage door.

SUNDAY, JUNE 5

thermops bottles,
we got to sleep
at 1:30 am

20th.

We went to the London tower for a few minutes and that was
all. Just a few minutes and that was about all.

MONDAY, JUNE 6

21st.

We woke up real late and I got a hair cut so we just went shopping and came home.

TUESDAY, JUNE 7

30th. We went to the Wallace collection and saw many old paintings and armour. The paintings were beautiful
but I don't see how the horses could hold a man with 400 lb
on his back who can't lift his arm because the armour is so heavy.
Plus that, the horse
has armour of its own
and it carries it all.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8

31st.

We went to a circus
and it was lousy.
Minnie draws much better. We went shopping a bit and then went

THURSDAY, JUNE 9

"Together Again"
 1st. We went to the National Gallery and saw all the Dutch masters, after while I was able to identify some of the painters. 3rd then went to the Prince of Wales Theatre for a package was at the Palace. I was sure could not find a package in the Palace. I was sure that night had opened at the Palace.

FRIDAY, JUNE 10

2. We went to Epsom to see the races. It was a real old place and dirty.
 The horses ran on a grass track, not like where they run on dirt tracks.
 It looked ancient and in the infield there were ~~some~~ carmen.
 The ~~Lords~~ are all dressed up and bowing to the

SATURDAY, JUNE 11

ladies. When the race is on everybody yells! The bookies are making gestures with their arms signaling odds to other 3rd. We woke up to late to do anything except shop. We went home later had tea, and then went to dad and Uncle Chico's shoes. I timed certain scenes that night.

SUNDAY, JUNE 12

We went to M. N. H. and saw 4th ~~many~~ interesting things.
 We went to see Danny Karge at the Palace.
 I know pretty good. At night we went to see
 dad's show again.

MONDAY, JUNE 13

5th — We went to Hampton Court and saw the different rooms of the ^{Henry VIII} palace. It was a magnificent palace ^{Henry VIII} was given to Henry VIII by Cardinal Wolsey who built it, when he was going to be beheaded for ^{treason} ~~anything~~. The king took it and everything else he had and then ^{treason} killed him.

TUESDAY, JUNE 14

~~Then when~~ over the ~~camp~~ over a note to the courtyard. In the courtyard there was a beautiful calendar clock. It showed the time the ~~date~~ the month and the day ~~and~~.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15

We went up some stairs to the ~~palace~~ and in the first room was the guard room. The walls were hung on the walls in beautiful designs. All the rooms were paneled of oak. In many of the rooms there were ~~manuscripts~~ ^{manuscripts} and ^{imagined} ~~imagined~~ paintings and tapestries. Most of the rooms had a secret door which could be opened a way where there were only two signs in the ~~whole~~ ^{whole} room were in.

THURSDAY, JUNE 16

FRIDAY, JUNE 17

We didn't see much of the garden but there was tremendous acreage. We went through the mazes in the gardens.

SATURDAY, JUNE 18

4th - We took a train to Leeds and we went for a ride in the best cars in the world, a Royal Bently. Dad had a terrible cold but he had to go on that night. Queen's Hotel.

7th - I just looked at nothing else. We went to date show at Leeds.

8th - We went to a museum and that was all. We went to his.

THURSDAY, JUNE 23

6th - The train to Leeds was bad but the hotel was good. A traffic jam prevented us from going to Harrogate.

7th - The shops were closed because of Bank Holiday. The air was balmy. Dad opened his show and it was very good. Some of the people on the bill were Bob, (my turn, she is ended), Lloyd and Betty. Arthur, Wardley, a ventriloquist, Lionel King, a wonderful card trick specialist. FRIDAY, JUNE 24

Laconas, acrobats.

8th - Mom and I went to the town museum. It was a small place but it had a few small species of insects and fishes. The people of Leeds are nice, high spirited but quiet.

9th - Mom had a cold so Dad and I went driving with Mr. & Mrs. Bier Cohen and we didn't see a thing. We went around in circles.

SATURDAY, JUNE 25

He showed us his Bridge Club. Very uninteresting. He went to the show and when we came home mom was sitting in bed listening to us sing. My turn, she has ended. The curtain must fall. We had a delicious mid-night snack.

SUNDAY, JUNE 26

10th Ronnie Lacona and I went roaming around town, up and down streets. The streets are all crooked. It is a town like Cincinnati. We played a little gin rummy during the break. She showed us very good.

MONDAY, JUNE 27

11th - We went to Old York and saw part of the Roman wall. York has bottleneck streets and many antique shops. Mom took some moving pictures. We went to Harrogate which was very uninteresting.

TUESDAY, JUNE 28

Dad had his last show that night and the card trick specialist taught me how to palm a card. We packed up early and had our mid-night snack.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 29

12- We got on a train that was lead but the scenery was wonderful. Miles and miles of pastures, I enjoyed looking at it. We slept in the station that night. We had a room
 right on the station.
 Tapestry & half past the 13- I did not go to the show. Nothing was there.

 14- We changed the theatre and went out to Edinburgh

THURSDAY, JUNE 30

nothing to thrilling
 went to the show.

15- Some of the people on the show were
 Charles Amcasser
 Jagger, & pantomime

TUESDAY, JULY 5

13- We changed rooms and went to dad's rehearsal. I had to go to bed early that night.

14- Went to Edinburgh with Mr. & Mrs. Walter Harris. Went to the castle there and saw the

WEDNESDAY, JULY 6

view of Edinburgh
 and the Firth of Forth
 It was dull and rainy
 Very uninteresting
 Then we went shopping for blankets
 and we got some beautiful ones!
 We went up
 and down Princes
 Street which was

THURSDAY, JULY 7

nothing. Everyone said it was terrific. We didn't I went to the show.
I saw, Charles Rineaster, a juggler, comedian, pantomime, Johnny Rockwell, comedian, Hal McKim, dancer. And that.

FRIDAY, JULY 8

15- Went to Loch Lomax took some moving pictures and so the lake. It was just another lake.
We saw ~~chad~~ ~~and~~ ~~and~~
s. We had a ~~had~~ lunch. It was just another lake and.

SATURDAY, JULY 9

Mrs Harris said the waters were treacherous. They put up a statue where
a boy had drowned
many people
drown in our lakes. ^{but yesterday} Dad ^{put} ^{up} ^{the}
to two ladies
3 times as we lost.

SUNDAY, JULY 10

all way
didn't go to the show. Took in 4.50 26
16- We roamed
around town
trying to find dad
~~and~~ blue overcoat
we didn't find
one. Mr. Harris

MONDAY, JULY 11

took us to a place where they make argile holes. Dad was enjoying signing autographs. I think they were working
all these girls working like slaves.
It was a poor sight.
I saw the show
It was very good
we got out in a hurry.

TUESDAY, JULY 12

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13

12- I spent most of the day working on my diary. Had lunch with the publicity agent
sent up by Lester Corwain. Went for a walk, went shopping for some slippers for dad.

THURSDAY, JULY 14

had the usual
tea, went to the show. Mom was to light ^{up} the stand out in the wings
with his clarinet.

Dad accidentally went to middle of the curtain curtain.

FRIDAY, JULY 15

wasn't there. Dad was yelling "hey Maw" all the time until he finally got off during small these shows

from
was busy stamping
dad's character stamp and then forgoing his name
to photograph sheets of paper

SATURDAY, JULY 16

16th - Went for a walk

bought a couple of pens and by that time we were ready for dad's last show.

We went home on a nice
train that night.
I sleep.

SUNDAY, JULY 17

17th - We arrived and went to the Savoy Hotel.
Dad went to his rehearsal at the Paladium. It was uninteresting.
We went out to dinner at La Pies.

MONDAY, JULY 18

18th - Dad got a good rehearsal for his opening day.
It was the first hot day in London and we went out shopping.
Dad's performers were terrific. Uncle Chic was there too. The film with.

eggs. mmmmm.

22 - Matinee today
after the matinee
we had steak,
French Fried
potatoes and a good salad, with ice cold coco-cola
at the theater.
after the two
night shows we went straight
to bed.

Went to the show
Very good as usual
Still after both shows

FRIDAY, JULY 29

23 - Went to the antique show again - had tea and I went home. Just before the second show
I was called by men from the theater to come down there because Princess
Margaret was there.
She enjoyed the show extremely.

SATURDAY, JULY 30

24 - Mom and I Went for a ride
down the Thames river.
It was dirty and smelly and it had swarms all the way down.
On our way back
we stopped at the London tour
and saw the crown jewels. They were marvelous.
Walked all the

SUNDAY, JULY 31

way back to the Hotel
and I stayed home
I didn't go to the show.

25 - Dad and I went to see the pictures
"Sorrowful Jones"
while mom went antiquing. It was not ~~low~~ ^{high} ~~spies~~ fun - nicest picture. I went to the show.

26 - Went walking down the river front with mom and dad and then we went to Hyde Park
and heard the town
people stand on ~~large~~ and talk about the Bible and other things.
We went to bed early tonight because there was no show.

MONDAY, AUGUST 1

27 - Dad and I went to the zoo while mom went antiquing with Mary.
Dad was taking publicity pictures. In this zoo, 4 chimpanzees had a tea party and dad and Uncle Chico, who was there, took pictures with the chimps at the tea party. We fed the monkeys and went out for a walk with

TUESDAY, AUGUST 2

an orangutan. Dad took a picture with the orangutan wearing dad's wig. Went through the aquarium.
Saw neon fish.
They were very pretty.
Fed all the animals sugar. We then went to the show. After the show we had a good steak dinner at the Albany Club.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3

28- Mom and I had lunch at the Caprice Club. We then went looking for hotels that we could move into. But we found none. We went antiquing for about an hour. Then came home and went to the show.

29- Went on a river boat up to Kew Gardens with Mom & Dad. THURSDAY, AUGUST 4

We had had a nice trip up the river and when we got there, we were told to go and see the gardens. But there were no lilacs so we didn't go in. We took a subway back to London. I didn't go to the house.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 5

30- Went to Wimbledon to see the tennis matches. Schroeder and Mulloy played G.E. Brown and A.W. Sidwell and the first couple won in the most exciting match I have ever seen, 6-3 3-6-6. I went to Brady's Boys club. It was a very nice fellows, we talked all evening and it passed away some time. SATURDAY, AUGUST 6 1- Mom went antiquing with Mary and Dad and I went to see a movie that the people would do over again so that Dad and Uncle Chico could play in it. It was a pretty good picture I thought. Then all of us went to the show. After the show a Mr. Feather came.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 7

to visit us and he was talking to us until 1:30 in the morning. He smoked one cigarette after another and he didn't exactly smoke, he kept it in his mouth when he was talking and never puffed it. The ashes went flying all over the bed and his suits.

MONDAY, AUGUST 8

1- Went to Alexandra Race Park to do a publicity stunt. I stayed in the car. The crooks were lined up with their boards putting on the odds and making those funny motions with their hands. Mom cut the winners and we got right outs. It was a real funny looking race track. When the horses started there was no yell. You didn't even notice the race had started. I stayed home from this show.

3- We got up at nine o'clock and had breakfast and went out to the Petticoat lane. You walk down the street and you see people selling these goods. Real junky stuff. But there is one little dead end street that has all sorts of stuff and we bought a asparagus tray. We then came home and took a snooze. We didn't know that Petticoat lane closed at 2:30 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10

THURSDAY, AUGUST 11

we went there and we had to walk back.

Went out for dinner and got lost. Were to go to 24 Duke Street but we thought it was 28. Had a fair dinner and saw television. They had to memorize so many lines. I was 4. - pretty good.

Went to Kensington Church St. and went antiquing. Dad would go into the taverns and get miniature liquor bottles; brought home plenty. Stayed home that night.

5. Went out antizing with Mary and Mom. I couldn't go into any China shops because she was afraid I would break something. We came home and had lunch. We dallied around until show time.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 13

6 - Dad and I went around and collected more miniature liquor bottles. We were shown around all the little places and sales they had "kid" stuff.

Then went home and waited until show time.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 14

7 - We went antiquing with Mom + Mary and but we didn't go to any Silver Stores. ~~I had been~~ (I had been studying ~~on~~ silver. We came home and had spaghetti and then went out for a little walk. Then went to

MONDAY, AUGUST 15

Jaegers department store and Hilberts to find a birthday present for Gaga. From there we went to the theatre.

We went to the House of Commons for lunch. We were invited by a M.R.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 16

Noel Baker. His father ~~is~~ law is the Head Librarian
of the House of Commons.
After lunch we went and saw some books as old as 1621.
They were like a diary of the Kings.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17

We touched a page that was touched by Oliver Cromwell. Then we went and heard
debates in the House of Commons hall. A uniformed soldier
would come and set down the mace signifying that THURSDAY, AUGUST 18
that particular
session was over.

Then he would return and set back the mace
signifying that the next session should begin.
Then we came home
and had tea and
went to the show.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 19

9 - Went to see the show Oklahoma with Dad
while mom and Mary went to see
Gertrude Lawrence.

I liked the second half of Oklahoma
than the first.

After the show
we arose and
SATURDAY, AUGUST 20

backstage and met one of the men who told us to come.

We rushed off to the theater to have tea and the show.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 21

18. We got up early and went to Petticoat Lane.
But it was no
good a second time.
We bought something
and thought was old but it was modern china. So we lost two dollars. Then we had a good
meal at Olivelli's

MONDAY, AUGUST 22

again. We had
delicious melon, Macaroni with meat sauce, Chicken
casserole, beans,
fried potatoes,
Ice cream and fresh peaches for dessert. Then we went to see

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23

"Kind Hearts and Coronets, a hilarious study in the gentle art of murder."

11- We went out and walked around Town
for a while, went
to antique shops,
bought nothing.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24

Went to the theater
enjoyed had tea.
I was leading Mary
in a game of poker
when she found out that ~~somebody~~ had been in her sketch. I don't know what happened after

THURSDAY, AUGUST 25

that. Went to Ollivetti's after the show and had the same dinner.
We had dinner with Maggie Marshall.

12- Went with Uncle Chico and Mary with Mom & Dad to a place where they make beautiful
cashmere sweaters.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 26

The man was not there
to show us what the sweaters were like
so we split up and Mom, Dad, and I went to the Foster
Agency and went back to the cashmere
place where we met Uncle Chico
and Mary.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 27

The material was nice and soft. The sets were really cheap. After we ordered our sweaters
we went around
looking for cat's eye stones and went to Liberty's store. Then we all went to the theater and

SUNDAY, AUGUST 28

had tea. After the shows Dad and Uncle Chico had lunch to be so ~~slow~~, ~~terrible~~ and I went home and packed. We had dinner in Mary's room with Norma and

MONDAY, AUGUST 29

Our trip to ^{France} Mary also.
13- We got up early and went to the plane,
after being checked for our baggage and pas-ports. It was a nice trip for my first time and before
you knew it we were across the English Channel, the land in France

TUESDAY, AUGUST 30

is so straight and clean cut from that of ~~London~~ England.
When we arrived
we were checked
again and we then went to the hotel
George V. We got straightened up there

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31

and then went out for lunch. The food was not good there.
after lunch, it was a corker of a day. we went out shopping and bought a
some ties at Charles.
~~we~~ When we got home we took baths and we were told to go to dinner
at a certain place.
We had dinner there
but the only thing
that was good
was the melon I had after dinner, we walked

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1

for a couple of blocks to get a cab. But when we got a cab, he didn't want to go where we wanted to go,
he wanted to go as far as the boulevard
and no farther.
We finally forced him to go to the

Casino FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2

D Perrie where we wanted to go. The show was terrible and we saw very little of the show.
When we got home mom
and I got on the rim of the bathtub
and soaked our feet
in ice cold water

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3

They were so swollen from walking all day.

14- We had breakfast and went for a car ride in a convertible truck. We went to Versaille, went to the gardens but we didn't go in.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

It looked as if it may have been nice. We then had lunch which also was not good. That 3 hours was wasted really except for the car ride. We then got a taxi at the hotel and I was taken all over Paris. First we went to the Louvre museum but it was closed. Then we went up to the Sacre and looked down at Paris. It was very nice up there because you could see the Eiffel Tower, and all the important things of Paris. We then tried to go to Napoleon's tomb but it was closed because of Bastille day. At night the people dance.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

in the streets until 8:00 in the morning ^{every} the day the ^{French} people were freed from the Bastille. ^{in the French Revolution} We covered plenty of ground
 Paris is so beautiful with these lovely
 wide space and gardens.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

I an Englishman
 saw that he would
 die. We came home
 had leather went out to dinner and had a terrific
 meal at Mermoz.
 We had steak, potatoes,
 rice, vegetables,

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

french fries, and for desert we had delicious suflay made with eggs, a little liqueur, and other things. Then we went to Folies Berger. That was worse than last

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

night. Josephine Baker, the star of the show, kept falling down when she was dancing.
 Then after that we took a horse
 and buggy home

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

That was fun. We then went to bed.

5- We first went out early and bought
a lot of ties at ^{again} Lanvin.
Then we went shopping for Minnie's dress.
We found nothing
until after lunch.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

Our lunch was very good at Joseph's.

We had a omelette
made with some
cream cheese sauce
and we had vegetables
and other things.
We found Minnie's
some dresses after lunch. They were

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

very nice. We went to the Source and saw
Marius Derrilo.
The Source was
a nice disappointment.
We went to Napoleon's tomb and that was wonderful.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

The walls of the dome-like house
were beautiful.
They were polished
white stone marble
and his tomb
was made of marble. We bought ^{SOUVENIRS}
We went home and put all the

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

the thing we had bought in the ~~the~~ suitcases and we left for the airport. We were checked by the ~~offices~~ officials and we left on ~~the~~ plane. I looked down and saw castles in the midst of forests. The land was beautiful. But when we flew over England we saw those dirty old red houses again. We arrived in London, had our passports, and baggage checked then went to the Savoy, had our baggage left there, then went to the theater. I saw the last half of the second show. We then went to dinner at a new place after the show. It was very good. We then went to bed.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

16 - We woke up at about one and packed our bags and suitcases and didn't stop packing until 7:00. Then we went to the show.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

17 - We got up early and finished packing. We checked every thing and then are left on a nice train to Birmingham. When we got there we went to a boarding house. When we got there, the hot water would start the toilet wouldn't flush. But we found for hot water you had to put a penny in the slot, and we later got the toilet to flush. We had a very good dinner and then went to bed.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

18 - We went to rehearsal and got straightened out in the dressing room. The Hippodrome was out into the

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

poorer section of town
 somewhere finished
 rehearsal, we waited 10 minutes for a cab so we finally had to call for a cab to go

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

back to the boarding house
 which was on the other side of town.
 We had tea and went back to the theatre.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

Dad's first show was poor but the second was much better
 and the audience
 was so good to him that he said thank you
 to the audience

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

over the orchestra.
 We had a good dinner that night.
 19- We went out walking, read the review in which

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

well very good. We saw some miniature bottles and so we went in the store, went down to the basement
the man sold us
4 miniature liquor
bottles, then looked

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

all the doors and then offered us
a glass of dry sherry.
mom and dad said
it was good.
Went back to the hosting house
for lunch.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

We then all took a nap and went to the show. It ~~was~~ improved from
last night's show.
We then had a good dinner after

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

the show and
went to bed.
mom and dad
went to Stratford on Avon
with Alga and
and when we got there it
was nothing.
It was the home

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 1

of Shakespeare. We had lunch at the theatre where Macbeth
was playing.
The lunch was not good. We went boating up the

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2

anon that was fun
because we were always turning to pass or backing
into other boats.
We then saw Macbeth. That was good - the way

MONDAY, OCTOBER 3

stage work was wonderful. We then went
back to the
boarding house
had tea and
went to the theatre.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4

The shows were wonderful and then went home
had dinner
and went to bed.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5

21 - Dad and I went down town. Dad
went to buy
some clarinet reeds while I had a haircut.
While I was there Dad came home for tea and
went to the show.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6

22 - Dad and I got up at one thirty and had lunch.
The mom and I went to see passport to "India". I didn't like it as much as
"Kind Hearts and Coronets" but it was

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7

Then we came home,
had tea and went to the show. We then came home and had dinner and went to bed.
