One who loved her Brother.

a certain woman
once, a long time ago
loved her brother
so much. They always stayed together since they lost all their relatives; she always kept house for him.
Once in the village
all the men went out on war path,
her brother had to go along, they weren't got long before they returned, no one was killed but her brother

he was the only one that did not return.

The return warriors
said he got shot in the chest.

They came and told her about it. She felt very sad, but told them to go on and dance, not to stop on account of her brother's death. So the men of the village prepared for a big war dance. While this woman cried & cried. On the fourth day she ground some corn and made soup, while she sang sad songs about her brother. Then she invited all to eat the corn.

3.

This was on the fourth day. So on the seventh day she had the men all hunt for game for meat. and they brought a lot of game.

So they got busy to cook it. She said for them to take their time, not to hurry. It was just like they were giving a sacred feast. She sang and songs all the time.

So they were cooking the last kettle full of deer. Soon the men who were cooking it said "it is done". So they took it off.

Then this woman's brother who was that killed come walking in, he just barely walked in, he was wounded thru the breast.

Every one was glad to see him especially his sister that loved him so much, she stopped crying.

So they all had a big feast army way.
Then they had a big war dance. The whole village greeted him.

5-

So after the feast
they had a council
they planned on going
out on a war path
again, on the same
ones that had shot
this young man.
In a few days they were to start again.

This sister of his
had a vision, so she knew all about
who killed him.
She said they were only eight wigwams

where they were going to fight.

6. She told these men to go right up
and attack the village at day break
and to kill every one in the village
except only one.
And that one is a woman. She will have a little white feather tied around her neck, do not kill her but bring her home.

7. So these men said they would prepare for the attack. It came time for them to go, so they all left again for the village where they had been before. It was dark so they stopped a little ways
not far off, they crawled up closer
and closer, it was all quite.

8. So toward day break they attacked
the village they killed all the Sioux's
but two. and these were the ones they were told to bring home. one had a little white feather

around her neck,
the other a white
feather tied to his bow.
This was man and wife. This man who had shot the boy in the chest. So they took these two back.
9. They brought them back to the Fox villiage. So these two Sioux's were the only ones who were left of their village; all the rest were killed.

So the whole tribe
gathered again to see the captured
Sioux.

So they had a council about what was to do with these Sioux. They also brought a pile of scalps. They decided to make a slave
out of the woman.
And the woman who loved her brother so much wanted to kill the man who killed her brother.

11- So this woman was to be kept for a slave, but her husband was to be killed, they tied his arms back.

And then this woman
killed him.

12. They took his scalp and cut his head off, this certain woman who was the brother to the wounded man,
was the one who took the scalp,
and all the other

women helped her.
13. They had a big time, even
the old women were running around with benjines. So this woman was called the brave woman
of the tribe.

14. So this brave woman said "I am going to dress
like a man and go on a war path.

So another woman said, "I will do the same. So they got ready and started out. They dressed like men, and they looked like men. In those days even the men wore their hair long.

13. As they went along it was getting dark they saw a wig-wam they went up close to it.

They could hear two old men talking.

It was some Sioux.

So they laid down not very far away.

Then toward morning they attacked the tree, when the Sioux were sound asleep.

They hit the two old men on the head with war clubs and killed them, then there was a young girl the grand child fast asleep, they took her and tied her arms back and took her home. She was a very beautiful Sioux girl.

So a nephew of, one of these brave women married this Sioux girl, it was not long till she understood and talked the same language as these others. And the slave there a Sioux girl too who was captured

before, use to interpret for this young girl before she could understand. 18-

And these brave
women brought home
the two scalps so they made a sacred bundle and held a big feast. They cooked dried squash
and deer meat.
all the village had a big feast. So it was time for the men to go on a war path again.

19 So all the men
got ready and started off on a war path.
When evening came they had not seen any sign of a Sioux
so they set the camp.
Each man went out to hunt, here they killed forty one pro-
-sums. So they all got busy and cooked
them for their lunch.
After they all had eaten they got ready for bed.

20. Early in the morning they started off again. Then they saw a track of some people so they began to track it. Soon they followed it to where they saw a village then they all prepared to attack it suddenly.

21. They fought till they killed all the Sioux's. Then they were told to save only one that was one who were a valuable but around his neck for a collar, he was the only one they told not to kill, so they brought this lion home again, but they killed all the rest.

22 - So this time when they brought the lion, they decided not to kill him but the brave woman was to marry him. So she said she was willing to do that, if he was a nice looking woman, if his looks suit her she

23. was willing to marry him. So they were just now bringing the only Sioux they saved.

So they send for the Sioux girl to interpret for them. They asked him about his father he said his father was a chief, that he was the only child his parents had.

24. He had no brothers nor sisters. So they told the brave woman about him. And he was a very handsome Sioux. So she came to see him and she liked him very much. So she took him for her husband. They got along nicely, soon these Sioux that were married to the Fox tribe began to have quite a lot of children.

25 This last Sioux man they brought was quite a doctor. he knew a lot of Indian medicines, he use to go about and doctor the sick ones of the village So one day this Siouy said "I am going

out on a war path,"
so a lot of the men of the village went with him. He took the lead.

26. In a couple of days they stopped to eat, here they killed four deer. They dressed them and roasted the meat, all had a big feast before they went on. In the morning they went on again. The fourth day they were going they saw a great big Sioux village between two big hills. They saw all kinds of trees.

27. So this Sioux said "I will go on a head when I had, whooped four times you can come forward."

So the Sioux crawled up to the tents, then he gave four war whoops, but they got him and captured him. And also these 70's that went with him were captured.

28. Here this Sioux that was captured saw his grand mother and grand pa, he begged them to let him loose but they did not. They told the other men to tie him up tight, then they burned him with flaming sticks till they made him cry.

29. They done all kinds of mean tricks to him, they also done the same to the other ones that were his friends the Foxes. But at last the ones that were watching him got tired and fell asleep, so he broke loose and helped his other friends to get loose, so while the camp was dead sleep they took the war clubs and killed all the Sioux's except his old folks. They took these old folks back to the Fox village.

30. So they all prepared for another big feast, as the braves brought home a lot of scalps. And

this young man
the Sioux who was married in this tribe
had some of his friends torture the old folks, because when they were captured, the old folks would not take up for them.
31. So after the big feast the old folks were kept in the village as prisoners but one day they got away and were back to some Sioux village some where. They told these Sioux's

about it, if he ever came near to kill him. But this Sioux fellow knew and
heard the old folks.
So he planned to get even with them some time.

32 - Even they were his old folks but they would not try to protect him. So after this when the Fox would catch a Sioux they would torture him
to death, that is the way the Sioux were doing to them.

33. Then before he was ready to go on the war path to seek for the old folks who got away, he became very ill.

He told his wife he did not expect to live much longer.

He told his wife some one of her tribe did not like him that he was witched by one who knew bad medicine.

34. "I think two men will come to see me
to-morrow" he said.
In the morning two men came to see him, here they were his grandchildren.

He told his wife to give them his fancy Indian clothing. So
the wife took out
the clothes and gave them to the boys.

35. He was so glad to see them, he did not know he already had grandchildren,
he was now getting quite old. Then the boys went away.

So the old man took medicine, then he got well.

36. When he was able he prepared
right away to go on a war path to his own tribe that had treated him so cruelly.
So nearly all the Fox of the village
went with him.

The Sioux took the lead as usual.

They traveled four days till the fourth

night they saw a Sioux village.

37. So they crawled up close to it, they planned to attack
it by day break.

None of them went to sleep. So toward morning when all
were dead in sleep
they crawled up to the village of Apes.
They took their war
clubs and killed them all but the old folks.

38. They did not kill them, the Sioux
sawed them soon
as he recognized them

"O, here is our boy" did you get home - some for us," they cried, as they were so scared. "No, I do not think I am any relation to you, you remember you had me burned nearly to death."

39. So they made these old folks run nearly all the way, they would hit them once in awhile, the old folks were crying when they got to the village.

Then, the Sioux
told the tribe how his own folks had him treated. But he had deer meat
cooked and told
the old folks he would feed them
for the last time.

40. That when the deer was cooked
they was to eat it
and if they could-nt eat it up they were to be killed.
So they tried hard to eat up the meat
but they couldnt,
so the Sioux said

now kill them.

But no one didn't want to lay hands on them.

41 - He asked his wife to kill them but she refused; till he asked every one in the village but they all refused, so he said "the Sioux is an enemy of the Fox"; but no one wants to kill them. "So I will" then he killed them.
